Re: BATTLE and ALLEN

At 7 A.M. operative telephoned to Mrs. Mernier's home and was told by the lady who answered the phone that Mrs. Mernier had not come home last night.

Operative then found a Belleville directory and listed therein were about a dozen named Allen and then proceeded to those addresses, but none of those interviewed knew of a Mrs. Elizabeth Allen.

Operative then telephoned to New Brunswick and reported the above to Mr. Thompson, who stated that Mrs. Elizabeth Allen had lived in Newark, N.J. but moved away about the 1st of May of this year.

Operative found a Mrs. Elizabeth Allen at 506 Orange St. listed in the Newark directory and went there. Was told by a lady on the first floor that Mrs. Allen had lived in the apartment next to her, but moved some time ago, she thought she moved to #27 1/2 Orleans St. in Newark.

Proceeded to Orleans St., but could not find 27 1/2, and spoke to people living at #19, 21, 23, 25, 27, 29 and 31 Orleans St. but none of these people ever heard of a Mrs. Allen.

At 7 P.M. I telephoned to Mrs. Mernier's home again and finally got her on the wire. Made an appointment to meet her at her daughter's home in Patterson at 7 P.M. Saturday evening, the 2nd instant.

Operative then discontinued and returned to New Brunswick, N.J.

Respectfully submitted:
